Hi John,

For your information, attached is the letter I received in the mail yesterday that we referred to in this morning's call.

Best Regards,
Kathy

Fellow Tagnetics Shareholders:

Last March, our business Tagnetics (aka Powershelf) became a defendant in a bankruptcy proceeding in federal court in Ohio. Several suppliers and three Insiders claim Tagnetics owes them large sums of money.

Three of the suppliers who were represented by attorneys were paid in full. Three former employees (2 of them former board members) are still proceeding and claim Tagnetics owes them more than 1 million dollars.

It appears that our board has agreed to allow Tagnetics to go into bankruptcy. They report more than 1 million dollars in "delinquent payroll and taxes". Tagnetics owes taxes in 5 states and has not filed required tax returns in many years. They have been evicted from their offices for not paying rent.

It also appears that our CEO and several members of our board and management and employees, along an attorney for the company, have maneuvered to put their debt to be paid ahead of our investments and debt when the company is put in bankruptcy.

Last August, our CEO and several of the members of our board and management and employees, and our CEO's personal attorney who is also representing us in the bankruptcy, started a new company in Wyoming – Smart Retail, Inc. – where they seem to be selling new investments and have taken the "Smart Retail Label" that was the property of Tagnetics.

They have done all of this without getting permission from, or even notifying the shareholders of our company. We have not had a meeting of the owners or any reports from the directors in over 5 years. That seems unfair.

The last co-CEO that I am aware of is:

Larry S. McWilliams

Following the format of this form, set out the information required in Parts 3 and 4 of the form for each additional petitioning creditor, the petitioner's claim, the petitioner's representative, and the petitioner's attorney. Include the statement under penalty of perjury set out in Part 4 of the form, followed by each additional petitioner's (or representative's) signature, along with the signature of the petitioner's attorney.

Part 4: Request for Relief

WARNING -- Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime. Making a false statement in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $500,000 or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

If you are a creditor, not a debtor, and you are not the debtor, you are the creditor. If you are a petitioner, not a creditor, and you are not the debtor, you are the petitioner. If you are a petitioner, not a creditor, and you are not the debtor, you are the petitioner. If you are a petitioner, not a creditor, and you are not the debtor, you are the petitioner. If you are a petitioner, not a creditor, and you are not the debtor, you are the petitioner.

If you are a petitioner, not a creditor, and you are not the debtor, you are the petitioner. If you are a petitioner, not a creditor, and you are not the debtor, you are the petitioner. If you are a petitioner, not a creditor, and you are not the debtor, you are the petitioner.
